

MAURICE CORMIER - BIO

Originally from Shediac New-Brunswick, Maurice Cormier discovered drawing as a young child browsing through his father's encyclopedias. These simple black and white tiny lithographs on mat and slightly yellowed paper remain in the undercurrents of his artistic pursuits.

Later on, many years spent working on production lines, where machinery, repetition and patterns are predominant also left a definite mark.

Today he seeks to create a simple visual language through a blend of the beauty and expression of line and tone along with the credibility of classical techniques.

Holding a bachelor's degree in fine arts with a major in photography and printmaking, Maurice has held solo and group art exhibits, as well as worked on book illustrations and various other visual projects. He considers himself to be an emerging artist and currently lives in Campbellton, New Brunswick.
